

MANY EVENTS OF REAL INTEREST IN SOCIAL LIFE

Beautiful Wedding of Miss Agnes Holladay McCarthy to Mr. W. E. Carson Attracted Wide Interest.

MANY SOCIAL FUNCTIONS IN HONOR OF MRS. ALLEN

Former Richmond Lady Who Is a Favorite Among Talented Women in New York is Warmly Welcomed; Hebrew Memorial Exercises This Week.

Last week was full of interest and gaiety in the social world of Richmond. At Woman's Club last Monday afternoon Miss Elva L. Lougee, of Boston, gave a talk on "Belgium" that was heard with great pleasure. Tuesday evening, in the club parlors, the post-graduates and graduates of the Richmond Training School for Kindergartners received their diplomas and had enough flowers bestowed on them to make their hearts glad. They were given their diplomas by Mr. W. S. Copeland, after having listened to a fine address on the "Trend of American Education," from Dean Russell, of New York, and heard the Countess de Braccia, of Italy, in some discriminating remarks regarding her experiences in the work of Italian education and the inspiration she had received, which she passed on to the graduates during her talk. Miss Parker, the principal of the Training School; Mrs. Beverly Munford, Mrs. L. R. Dashiell and many other men and women in the community, interested in the cause of education, were present.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Flora Anna Steele's book, "On the Face of the Waters," acknowledged to be one of the most vivid pen pictures ever drawn of the Indian mutiny, was discussed at the club by the Literary Round Table.

Wednesday Seventh Street Christian Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding, that of Miss Agnes Holladay McCarthy and Mr. William Edward Carson, of Front Royal, Va. The bride, her maid of honor and her bridesmaids were most handsomely gowned, and a large society contingent witnessed the church ceremonial.

Thursday the Society of Cincinnati in the State of Virginia held a meeting in the hall of the House of Representatives, where many Richmond people connected with the society, or interested in it, listened with great appreciation to an eloquent address from Hon. Alfred B. Smith, of Massachusetts. At night an elegant banquet, given in Westmoreland Club, reflected great credit on the chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, Mr. Heth Lorton, of New York, formerly of Virginia, who, with Mrs. Lorton, is spending some time at the Jefferson Hotel, in Richmond.

Thursday afternoon and Friday evening the presentation of the operetta, "Red Riding Hood," at Woman's Club, under the direction of Mrs. C. P. Lee, Miss Ellen Guilgon and Mrs. F. T. Grymes, proved a brilliant and most attractive success.

Saturday everybody went to Jamestown in the steamer Pocahontas, and enjoyed the day immensely, having the opportunity to see beautiful and picturesque Brandon as well as to improve a heretofore superficial knowledge of Jamestown Island and its wonderful wealth of history.

Oakwood Memorial exercises were held on Thursday, Governor Swanson making the annual address, and representatives from all the Confederate organizations in the city helping to render the occasion memorable.

HEBREW MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

May 16th the Hebrew Memorial Association will keep its annual Memorial Day, and strew flowers on the graves of the brave soldiers who fought the battles of the Confederacy and are now held in honored and loved remembrance.

Mrs. William Allen and Mr. Allen, of New York, spent several days of last week at the Jefferson Hotel, and received the pleasantest sort of a reception among their many friends in Richmond society. They were kept busy going to the clubs, taking drives, and, on Mrs. Allen's part, attending charmingly informal luncheons and teas, where those who had known her intimately during the years that Richmond was her home, gathered to welcome her back. Among the many who thus complimented Mrs. Allen were Mrs. W. L. Royall, Mrs. Thomas L. Bolling, Mrs. John Dunlop and Mrs. C. C. McPhail.

A home wedding to take place next Tuesday, May 15th, will be that of Miss Ellen McCaw Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davenport, of No. 716 West Franklin Street, to Dr. Henry Wireman Cook, of Minneapolis, Minn. On account of the recent illness of Mrs. Davenport the ceremony will be quietly performed at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, with only the members of the immediate family present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Scott will spend the summer at their lovely country home, "Royal Orchard," near Afton, Va. A boulevard recently built from Afton to Royal Orchard adds greatly to its attractiveness.

Colonel and Mrs. Alexander Cameron and their family will leave about the first of June for "Cameron Lodge," near Gordonsville, Va., to remain until the autumn. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atkinson, and the Misses Atkinson will be at "Rocklands," in Orange county, for the summer. Mrs. James Allison will spend the summer at "Prescott," a few miles from Gordonsville. Mr. George W. Stevens and Miss Helen will be at "Glengyle," in Albemarle county, and many other fortunate owners of country homes will soon make ready for the house parties that are so distinctive a feature of the approaching season in Virginia.

CLOSING MUSICAL WOMAN'S CLUB TO BE NOTABLE OCCASION

Tea will be served at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock.

On Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock the closing musicale of the season will be given at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Hoen, chairman of the music committee. On this occasion members will be entitled to invite two guests, for whom they can secure invitations, as well as their own admission cards, by applying to the janitress at the club.

This musicale promises to eclipse all previous efforts of the club, both in excellence and musicality. Mrs. E. A. Hoen, who has been chairman of the music committee for the past two years, will retire after next Tuesday evening. Naturally she desires to make the closing concert a fitting climax to all preceding efforts, and with that end in view, and also to give the club an opportunity to meet all those who had contributed so

MAY WEDDINGS.

Watkins-Landrum.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Landrop Landrum, daughter of the Rev. Dr. W. W. Landrum, to Mr. Frank Nathaniel Watkins, of "Ingleside," near Farmville, Va., will be celebrated in the First Baptist Church, of Atlanta, Ga., Thursday evening next, May 11th, at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Landrum's father was formerly the pastor of the Second Baptist Church in Richmond, and the friends of his daughter's girlhood and his are much interested in hearing the news of her marriage.

Mr. Watkins now travels for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, with headquarters at Dublin, Ga., where he will reside with his bride, after their bridal tour.

Miss Landrum will be attended by her matron of honor, Mrs. Harrison Bleckley, of Atlanta, by her maid of honor, Miss Grace Warren Landrum; her bridesmaids, Misses Ethel Easton, Gladys Snook, Bessie Ray, Alice Orr, Elsie Landrum and Mary Briscoe, all of Atlanta.

The best man is to be Mr. Charles Dabney McKimney, of Atlanta. The groomsmen will be Messrs. George Beall, of New York; William S. Ryland, of Savannah; James Calloway, of Macon; L. A. Jordan, of Hawkinsville, Ga.; W. A. Blue, of Dublin, Ga.; John Gilmore and Harry Alexander, of Atlanta. The list of ushers will include Captain W. A. Hanard, Messrs. Henry E. Watkins, Harrison Bleckley, S. B. McKimney, Samuel Bashnolai and John W. Murrell.

The Rev. Dr. W. W. Landrum will perform the ceremony. Afterwards there will be a reception in the home of the bride.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Latane-Allen.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Julia Gilewood Allen, of Woodstock, Va., to Mr. H. A. Latane will be received with much pleasure by their many friends. The high social position and the personal popularity of both parties render this an event of interest to a large circle of friends and relatives.

Miss Julia Allen is the daughter of the late Judge Henry C. Allen, of Woodstock, and has many friends and admirers throughout the State.

Mr. Latane is a leading lawyer of Botetourt, as well as former member of the Legislature from that county, and is now secretary and treasurer of the Virginia Can Company, one of the largest plants of its kind in the South. Mr. Latane is also experienced in newspaper work and cultured in literature.

The marriage will take place about the middle of June at the home of the bride's mother at Woodstock, and will be very quiet, owing to protracted sickness in both families. Only a few near relatives will be present.

After a brief wedding tour, they will make their home in Buchanan, Va.

Miss Moore's Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Lisette Fries Moore, daughter of President W. W. Moore, of Union Theological Seminary, to the Rev. Andrew Reid Bird, of Baltimore, will be celebrated Thursday evening, May 24th, at 6 o'clock, in Chapel Seminary. Mr. Bird and his bride will be at home, after June 15th, at "Manse Laurel," Prince George county, Maryland.

Johnson-Thompson.

Under the caption, "The Engagement of Popular Folk," the Greenville, S. C. News has the following:

"The announcement was made yesterday of the engagement of Miss Gertrude Conger Thompson to Mr. Thomas Johnson, both of this city. Miss Thompson is a graduate of Chicago College, and is a beautiful young woman, possessed with much charm and grace, and has numerous admirers and friends. Mr. Johnson is a popular and clever rate clerk in the local freight office of the Southern Railway. The marriage will take place on the 23d of May, and will be a quiet affair.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Angus Johnson, of Alton, Texas, grandfather of the groom, who is the senior minister of the Southern Presbyterian Church, and is in his ninety-eight year."

Mr. Johnson is a brother of Mrs. Kate B. Verne, of West Main Street; also of Mr. William T. Johnson, of this city.

Mr. Johnson and bride will spend several days with Mrs. Verne, en route to New York, and other Northern cities.

Annual Recital.

The seventh commencement and grand annual recital of the Richmond School of Expression, under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Thurston, will take place at the Academy of Music Tuesday evening, May 22d, beginning at 8 o'clock.

From the professional class diplomas will be conferred upon Misses Ida Dillard, Myrie Owen and Daisy Wilson.

Miss Owen, who has a clear, high voice, will be heard in a comedy duet,

Initial Showing of White Millinery for Summer

SUMMERISH INDEED is the gatherings of beautiful white millinery in our show rooms.

Shaped unfinished Leghorns in plain and lace effects seem to be most favored by the fashion leaders. These can be seen here, trimmed in many beautiful styles. One of the latest models shows a white scarf at the back, which is to be worn thrown carelessly over the shoulder. It is an extremely chic and becoming style, and makes Milady look charming. Baby Irish and real lace Hats, in many pretty styles, are also very popular.

THE sale of seasonable colored Hats still continues; every day new Hats are taken from the show rooms and added to this sale collection. The best styles of the season will be found there at one-third of their former prices.

Pretty Summer Styles In Fashionable Linen Suits

THE alluring collection of smart, Linen Suit models, in pretty Eton and Bolero effects, that await your selection in the Suit Department, are very attractively priced. Two exceptional values are mentioned here:

SUIT OF LINEN-FINISHED CANNON CLOTH, short plaited jacket, trimmed with Hamburg insertion around neck, down front and back; elbow sleeves, with embroidery trimmed cuff; full flare skirt, with band of insertion above hem; exceptional value at $3.98

PIQUE COAT, made with double cape, hand-embroidered, scalloped edge and turned back cuff; special $2.25

FASHIONABLE JEWELRY AT REASONABLE PRICES

THE bracelet has come into favor again, and the fashionable woman must wear them with her long gloves. We are showing a beautiful line in Roman and plain gold, in plain or jeweled effects. Our lines of dog collars, combs, barrettes, etc., are extremely pretty and moderately priced.

The popular Fritz Schieff belts, in leather, silk and linen are here, and you have broad assortments to select from.

40c WARP PRINT RIBBONS, 19c

THE SUCCESS that attended our last sale of Warp Print Ribbons has urged us to further efforts along the same lines. We succeeded. This lot of Warp Print Ribbons is a finer grade than the last—they come in four and five inch widths in pretty Dresden effects, and you have a variety of designs to select from. As we only have about thirty-five pieces, we advise early buying.

with orchestral accompaniment. Miss Wilson, who is especially adapted to the humorous, will render a selection by Mark Twain. Miss Dillard's specialty being the artistic, she has been assigned a descriptive reading.

In the practical class are Misses Marie Anderson, Maggie Bryant, Joan Field, Mary Whitist, Daisy Wilson and Elizabeth Wilson.

Every member of this class has done excellent work, and will appear in a selection suited to her particular taste.

Dr. C. S. Gardner will deliver the diploma.

Miss Eula Bailey, who completed the professional course last year, now finishes the post-graduate course, in which she has taken a special Shakespearean repertoire. She will be heard in a scene from one of the plays.

Undergraduates ready for the practical course next year are Misses Maud Harvey, Bessie Moss, Juliet Keith, Helen Stagg, Evelyn Holderott, May Stacey, Rudy Stolis, Juanita Cohen, Sadie Engleberg, Hilda Proskauer and Miriam Beckett.

Others taking part in the exercises are Misses Bessie Wilson, Elizabeth Kelly, Edna Davis, Marguerite Stoltz, Peter Liechtenstein, Gladys Meade and Kate Markey.

A programme has been prepared which promises to be the most attractive in the history of the school, prominent features being a Shakespearean character comedy by the professional class and Miss Bailey, and a spectacular drill by sixteen young ladies.

Music will be furnished by the orchestra.

In Honor of Mrs. Magri.

The ladies of St. Anne's Benevolent Society were hostesses at a very enjoyable reception last Monday evening, in honor of Mrs. Magri, of Lynchburg, Va. The reception was held in the home of the president of the society, Mrs. W. D. Harrison, No. 411 North Eighth Street, the hours being from 5 to 8 o'clock. St. Anne's Society, of which Mrs. Magri is the president, is a branch of the larger organization of the same name, and about one hundred ladies called to meet Mrs. Magri, who is the mother of the Rev. Father Joseph Magri, D. D., one of Richmond's best beloved clergymen.

Mrs. John Murphy, by her beautiful songs, and Misses Steinbrecher and Anthony, by their attractive readings, added much to the pleasure of an occasion that was among the most delightful events of the week. Delicious and dainty refreshments were served by the daughters of the members of St. Anne's Society.

Class Recital.

The expression class of the Woman's College, of which Miss Virginia Pettit is director, will give its annual recital
